

Many believe that human trafficking only happens in underdeveloped countries, but survivors of trafficking know that there are no borders. Thank you for joining us on Thursday, January 28, 2016 in bringing hope to the San Fernando Valley.

Join Councilwoman Nury Martinez in Reaching for Hope

Putting an End to Human Trafficking in the San Fernando Valley

Councilwoman Nury Martinez, Strength United, and California State University, Northridge welcomes you to discuss the problem, response, experience, and solutions for the San Fernando Valley.

Thursday, January 28, 2016

Registration: 8:30 AM | Event: 9:00AM to 12:00PM | Northridge Center, CSUN

Space is limited. Please RSVP to lisa.dorado@strengthunited.org or (818) 787-9700.

CSUN

Event location: Northridge Center inside the Northridge Center Complex

Closest available parking structures

Parking permits may be purchased at any information booth or vending machines located in the parking structures